

UIIC AO 2026 — Exam Pattern, Syllabus & Salary Guide

Selection for the Administrative Officer (Scale I) posts is a three-stage process: a preliminary online test, a main online examination and an interview, followed by medical examination and document verification.

Selection stages

Stage	Details
Tier I — preliminary	Objective online test: reasoning, English language, quantitative aptitude and general awareness
Tier II — main	Deeper objective paper plus a descriptive English or Hindi paper depending on the stream
Interview	For candidates shortlisted from the main examination.
Final stage	Pre-employment medical examination and document verification.

Subject checklist

Section	What to prepare
Reasoning ability	Puzzles, seating arrangement, syllogism, inequality, coding-decoding, data sufficiency
Quantitative aptitude	Data interpretation, simplification, number series, arithmetic (percentage, ratio, time and work)
English language	Reading comprehension, cloze test, error spotting, para jumbles, vocabulary
General awareness	Banking and insurance awareness, current affairs of the last six months, economy, government
Descriptive paper	Essay, precis and letter writing in English or Hindi as applicable
Hindi Officer stream	Translation practice, Hindi grammar, official language (Rajbhasha) rules and terminology

Salary snapshot

Component	Indicative monthly amount
Basic pay (Scale I first stage)	Rs. 50,925
Dearness Allowance	Rs. 12,000 to Rs. 15,000
House Rent Allowance	Rs. 4,000 to Rs. 9,000 depending on the city
Other allowances	Rs. 1,500 to Rs. 4,000
Approximate gross	Rs. 70,000 to Rs. 80,000
Approximate in-hand	Rs. 58,000 to Rs. 66,000

Allowance rates change with the DA revision cycle and the classification of the posting city, so treat these figures as indicative estimates.