

UPSSSC LEO 2026: Eligibility, Exam Pattern and Salary

paycommissionnews.co.in - independent information portal

Eligibility criteria

1. Must have qualified the UPSSSC PET 2025 examination.
2. 10+2 Intermediate with Biology subject.
3. Two-year Diploma in Livestock Extension (Pashudhan Prasar Diploma).

Read the official notification for full eligibility details.

Age limit (as on 01 July 2026)

Minimum 21 years, maximum 40 years. Age relaxation for reserved categories as per UPSSSC recruitment rules Advt. No. 17-Exam/2026.

Selection process

1. Shortlisting on the basis of UPSSSC PET 2025 score.
2. Main written examination (date as per schedule).
3. Document verification and medical examination.

Salary and pay level

Livestock Extension Officer is a Pay Level 5 post with basic pay of Rs. 29,200 to Rs. 92,300, plus Dearness Allowance, House Rent Allowance and other admissible benefits under the Uttar Pradesh Government.

Estimated gross monthly salary at entry is around Rs. 42,000-48,000 depending on DA and HRA city classification, with National Pension System coverage.

8th Pay Commission context

If the 8th Central Pay Commission recommendations are adopted by Uttar Pradesh in line with earlier pay commission practice, basic pay could rise by a fitment factor estimated in the 1.86 to 2.86 range, substantially increasing gross and in-hand salary.

Use the free 8th CPC salary calculator at paycommissionnews.co.in/salary to estimate revised pay.

